Strategic Management in Aviation Critical Essays

Edited by Thomas C. Lawton, Senior Lecturer in Strategic Management, Imperial College, London, UK

'In a period of unprecedented turmoil in the airline industry – deregulation, privatisation, terrorism threats and sky rocketing fuel prices – successful implementation of a winning strategy has never been more critical. Thomas Lawton's collation of research papers creates a unique insight into the strategies deployed over the past 10 years by the phenomenally successful Low Cost Carriers and by the full service airlines fighting for survival – an indispensable reference of applied aviation strategy for professionals, regulators, advisors and students.'

Ray Webster, President easyJet Airlines plc
